The Heart Sutra

Maha Prajna Paramita Hridaya Sutra

Avalokiteshvara Bodhisattva, when practicing deeply the Prajna Paramita, perceived that all five skandhas in their own being are empty and was saved from all suffering. O Shariputra, form does not differ from emptiness, emptiness does not differ from form. That which is form is emptiness, that which is emptiness, form. The same is true of feelings, perceptions, impulses, consciousness.

O Shariputra, all dharmas are marked with emptiness. They are without birth or death; are not tainted nor pure, do not increase nor decrease. Therefore, in emptiness: no form, no feelings, no perceptions, no impulses, no consciousness; no eyes, no ears, no nose, no tongue, no body, no mind; no color, no sound, no smell, no taste, no touch, no object of mind; no world of eyes through to no world of mind consciousness. No ignorance and also no extinction of it through to no old age and death and also no extinction of it. No suffering, no origination, no stopping, no path, no cognition, also no attainment, with nothing to attain.

The Bodhisattvas depend on Prajna Paramita and their mind is no hindrance. Without any hindrance, no fears exist. Far apart from every deluded view they dwell in Nirvana. In the Three Worlds all Buddhas depend on Prajna Paramita and attain unsurpassed, complete, perfect Enlightenment.

Therefore know: the Prajna Paramita is the great transcendent mantra, is the great bright mantra, is the utmost mantra, is the supreme mantra, which is able to relieve all suffering and is true, not false. So proclaim the Prajna Paramita mantra, proclaim the mantra that says:

Gyate, gyate, paragyate, parasam gyate, bodhi svaha!

Preface to the Recorded Sayings of Zen Master Rinzai

On top of Mount Obaku he met the painful stick. On Taigu's ribs he could use his fist. "Garrulous grandmother!" "Bed-wetting little devil!" "This lunatic twice pulling the tiger's whiskers!" In a rocky gorge he planted pines, a landmark for later generations. He dug the ground with his mattock; the others were nearly buried alive. Having approved the youngster, Obaku slapped himself right on the mouth. On leaving, Rinzai wanted to burn the armrest; he will sit upon the tongues of everyone.

If he didn't go to Kanan he'd return to Kahoku. His temple overlooked the old ferry landing—he carried travelers across the stream. He guarded the vital fording-place like an escarpment ten-thousand spans high. Snatching away the man or the surroundings, he shaped and fashioned superlative students. With his Three States and Three Fundamentals he forged and tempered black-robed monks. He's always at home, yet forever on the way. The true man without rank went in and out the face. The monks of the two halls gave equal shouts, but guest and host were obvious. Illumination and action are simultaneous, fundamentally without front or back. A mirror confronting a form. An empty valley echoing a sound. Marvelously responding in any direction, he left not a trace behind.

Tucking up his robe he journeyed southward, then went to stay in Daimei. Koke took him as his teacher and attended him in the Eastern Hall. Still using the copper pitcher and iron bowl, he closed his room and stopped his words. As the pines grew old and the clouds idled, he found boundless contentment within himself. He had not long sat facing the wall when the secret transmission neared its end. To whom was the True Dharma transmitted? It was extinguished upon reaching the blind ass!

Old En of Engaku has now undertaken to circulate this text. It has been examined and corrected, therefore it contains no error or confusion. There is still one more shout coming. It needs further consideration: Zen students who have the eye to see, I entreat you not to exploit this text.

Preface respectfully composed on the day of the mid-autumn festival, the year Senna of Koshi era.

Hakuin Zenji's Song Of Zazen

All sentient beings are essentially Buddhas. As with water and ice, there is no ice without water; apart from sentient beings there are no Buddhas. Not knowing how close the truth is we seek it far away— what a pity!

We are like one who in the midst of water cries out desperately in thirst. We are like the son of a rich man who wandered away among the poor. The reason we transmigrate through the Six Realms is because we are lost in the darkness of ignorance. Going further and further astray in the darkness, how can we ever be free from birth-and-death?

As for the Mahayana practice of zazen, there are no words to praise it fully. The Six Paramitas, such as giving, maintaining the precepts, and various other good deeds like invoking the Buddha's name, repentance, and spiritual training, all finally return to the practice of zazen. Even those who have sat zazen only once will see all karma erased. Nowhere will they find evil paths, and the Pure Land will not be far away. If we listen even once with open heart to this truth, then praise it and gladly embrace it, how much more so then if on reflecting within ourselves we directly realize Self-nature, giving proof to the truth that Self-nature is no nature. We will have gone far beyond idle speculation. The gate of the oneness of cause and effect is thereby opened, and not-two, not-three, straight ahead runs the Way. Realizing the form of no-form as form, whether going or returning, we cannot be any place else. Realizing the thought of no-thought as thought, whether singing or dancing, we are the voice of the Dharma.

How vast and wide the unobstructed sky of samadhi! How bright and clear the perfect moonlight of the Fourfold Wisdom! At this moment what more need we seek? As the eternal tranquility of Truth reveals itself to us, this very place is the Land of Lotuses and this very body is the body of the Buddha.

Torei Zenji's Bodhisattva Vow

Disciples, when I humbly observe the true nature of things, all are the marvelous manifestation of the Tathagata's truth. Atom by atom, instant by instant, all are none other than his mysterious radiance. Because of this our virtuous ancestors extended loving care and reverence toward even such beings as birds and beasts. How, then, can we be but humbly grateful for the food, drink, and clothing that nourishes and protects us throughout the day, these being in essence the warm skin and flesh of the great masters, the incarnate compassion of the Buddha?

If it is so even with inanimate objects, how much more should we be kind and merciful towards human beings, even those who are foolish. Though they become our sworn enemies, reviling and persecuting us, we should regard them as bodhisattva manifestations who, in their great compassion, are employing skillful means to help emancipate us from the sinful karma we have produced over countless kalpas through our biased, self-centered views.

If we awaken in ourselves this deep, pure faith, offering humble words and taking sincere refuge in the Buddha, then with every thought there will bloom a lotus flower, each with a Buddha; these Buddhas will establish Pure Lands everywhere and reveal the radiance of the Tathagata beneath our very feet. May we extend this mind throughout the universe, so that we and all sentient beings may equally bring to fruition the seeds of wisdom.

The Bodhisattva Vows

Sentient beings are numberless: I vow to liberate them.
Desires are inexhaustible: I vow to put an end to them.
The Dharmas are boundless: I vow to master them.
The Buddha's way is unsurpassable: I vow to become it.

Opening This Dharma

The Dharma,

incomparably profound and exquisite, is rarely met with even in hundreds of thousands of millions of kalpas.

We are now permitted to hold it, see it, hear it, and accept it.

May we awaken to the deep true Mind of Tathagata.

Daito Kokushi's Final Admonition

You who have come to this mountain monastery, remember that you have gathered here for the sake of the Dharma, not for the sake of clothes and food. As long as you have shoulders, clothing will appear; as long as you have a mouth, food will come. Just devote yourselves to facing the inconceivable, twenty-four hours a day. Time passes like an arrow. I warn you, do not distract your minds with miscellaneous affairs.

Be alert! Be alert!

After this old monk departs on his final pilgrimage, some of you may erect prosperous temples with pagodas, great halls, and sutras written in gold and silver. These may attract large crowds who loudly chant the sutras and dharanis. Or some of you may sit for long hours without lying down. You may eat only one meal a day, and practice ceaselessly throughout the six periods of the day.

Even if you dedicate yourselves that way, unless you keep to the mysterious and untransmissible path of the Buddhas and Ancestors, you will be confronted by the sudden chaos of the law of causation. Then true practice will fall away, and you will have joined the family of evil spirits! No matter how much time has passed since my departure from this world, you will never be allowed to call yourselves my Dharma descendants.

However, one of you may dwell in a hut thatched with one bundle of straw, and pass the days eating the roots of wild herbs cooked in a broken-legged pot. Devoted to digging into This Matter, you will never be apart from me. You are a true student of Dharma, requiting the beneficence you have received. Who would dare to belittle or despise such a one?

Exert yourselves! Exert yourselves!

Dai E Zenji's Vow for Awakening

Our only prayer is to be firm in our determination to give ourselves completely to the Buddha's Way so that no doubts arise however long the road seems to be; to be light and easy in the four parts of the body; to be strong and undismayed in body and in mind; to be free from illness and drive out both depressed feelings and distraction; to be free from calamity, misfortune, harmful influences and obstructions; not to seek the Truth outside of ourselves, so we may instantly enter the right way; to be unattached to all thoughts that we may reach the perfectly clear bright mind of Prajna and have immediate enlightenment on the Great Matter.

Thereby we receive the transmission of the deep wisdom of the Buddhas to save all sentient beings who suffer in the round of birth and death. In this way we offer our gratitude for the compassion of the Buddhas and the Patriarchs.

Our further prayer is not to be extremely ill or to be suffering at the time of departure, to know its coming seven days ahead so that we can quiet the mind to abandon the body and be unattached to all things at the last moment wherein we return to the Original Mind in the realm of no birth and no death and merge infinitely into the whole universe to manifest as all things in their True Nature and with the great wisdom of the Buddhas to awaken all beings to the Buddha Mind.

We offer this to all Buddhas and Bodhisattvas, Mahasattvas of the past, present, and future in the ten quarters and to the Maha Prajna Paramita.
